Kober-Hoefer.

Mr. Walter Kober was married last evening to Miss Birdie Hoefer, at the residence of the bride's parents on North Main street. The happy parties were united by Rev. William G. Uffert, pastor of St. John's German Independent Protestant church. The bride and groom have the best wishes of their friends, and they are without number.

Hobbs to Resume.

It was thought the Hobbs glass works, on the South Side, would be able to resume at the end of the summer stop, August 15, but it now looks as though it would be nearer the look of next month before things begin to hum at these works. The new brick building is about completed and will be used as the cutting shop of the works.

Rev. Mr. Uffert's Mishap.

Rev. William Uffert started on his vacation about ten days ago. He expected to be gone at least a month, but met with a serious accident at Piqua, Ohio, where he was visiting his mother-in-law. He was playing lawn tennis and injured his knee by collision with one of the players. He arrived home last evening, and was able to limp from the train to his home and later in the evening marry a couple. His limb is still in a ticklish condition owing to the location of the injury, near the knee-cap, but he hopes with proper treatment, to be able to address his congregation as usual next Sunday, and tell them he is thankful that his accident was no worse than it was.

A Small Assignment.

A deed of assignment was yesterday filed for record with Clerk Hook by which Philip E. Schenk transfers to V. W. Berry in trust for the benefit of his creditors, all the goods in Schenk's store at 2135 Main street, with the shelving, counters and fixtures, with all other property, real or personal, wherever situated. The cost of executing and discharging the trust are first to be paid, and after that all creditors are to be paid, in full if possible, and if not, then pro rata.

Mr. Schenk is a paper hanger, and his assets and liabilities are both small.

Who Knows Carrie Hicks?

There is a letter in the Wheeling post-office from Mrs. James Black, of Wooster, Ohio, addressed to Carrie Hicks. Mrs. Black also writes to Postmaster Cowden asking him to make an effort to find Carrie, who is a young colored woman, and may be married. Mrs. Black has not heard from her for several years, since she left Wooster to come to Wheeling. She had a cousin in Bellaire. She lived with Mrs. Black for several years, and that lady now wants to find her so that she can do something for her before she dies. If anybody knows of Carrie's whereabouts Postmaster Cowden will be obliged for the information.

Left for the Seashore.

The excursion to Atlantic City and other eastern and seashore resorts over the Panhandle road yesterday afternoon was well patronized. The fine eighteen section Pullman car Beaufort, placed at the disposal of the excursionists, was crowded. Among those on the train were: Kennedy Friend, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Anderson, J. O. Howells and C. W. Appenzeller, of Bridgeport, Hannibal Forbes, Mr. and Mrs. Griffith, Robert Simpson, J. B. Long and wife, W. J. Bellinger, L. Zarnitz, J. B. Rickus, Mrs. W. K. Peters, Robert Stewart and wife, James Simpson and wife, Miss Lizzie Shemp and mother, A. L. Rice, L. Murphy, R. Schencklein, Samuel Kraft and William Stifel and son.

Dockstader's Minstrels.

This popular troupe will be at the opera house next Tuesday evening, being the first show of the season. Low Dockstader, the clever comedian, never tiring in his efforts to secure something new, bright and pleasing with which to tickle the thousands of admirers of burnt cork comedy, has struck upon a new theme, and in grotesque makeup as "Columbus," appears in a new special act which abounds in terse stories and new songs.

Blockson and Burns, described as "The Matchless Monarchs of Mirth," are now with Dockstader. They have scored a big hit in their new laughing sketch which they are pleased to call "Funnaballism."

THE CRIMINAL RECORD.

A Number of Malefactors Dealt with Yesterday.

THE BEER CAR THIEVES ARE HELD

And Frank Smith goes to the Insane Asylum—A Pickpocket Fined by Squire Gillespy—A Boy Seriously Hurts a Man with a Shovel—The List of Recent Criminal Assaults Increased.

Yesterday afternoon Charles Harris, Alfred, alias "Pudding" Clark and Ed Kinney, the three young fellows accused of breaking open a Baltimore & Ohio freight car loaded with Pabst beer and stealing several kegs of the beverage, were given a hearing by Squire Gillespy. Harris was first found by Officer O'Brien carrying off a keg of the stolen beer, and Clark was said by him to have been a party, while Kinney is the youth who tried to get away with a keg afterwards while the car was being watched, and who fought the railroad men with a knife when detected. He made his escape, but was arrested afterward. There are believed to have been several other parties to the robbery, but these three were all who were captured.

The evidence against them was very plain, and the justices demanded bond in the sum of $500 each for their appearance at the criminal court. In default of bail they were remanded to jail. Under the West Virginia law their offense is a felony.

The hearing of Frank Smith, suspected of being a lunatic, was concluded by the same justice yesterday. His wife testified that he had told her he had to "put her out of the way," so as to marry the daughter of a certain wealthy resident, and his little son said he showed him a butcher knife and said he would use it on his mother. He was remanded to jail till he can be taken to the Weston asylum.

Tom Kane, accused of picking the pocket of Andy Scherrer last Monday, and stealing a handkerchief, was yesterday fined $10 and costs by Squire Gillespy, and in default of the cash was sent to jail for ten days.

Held on a Serious Charge.

William Wilson, a nineteen-year-old youth who lives at Elm Grove, was arrested by Constable Anderson on a warrant issued by Squire Thornburg, of that district, on complaint of Addie Black, a girl fourteen years old, who accuses Wilson of felonious assault. He was lodged in jail for a hearing.

The girl's story is that she and Wilson were walking on the B. & O. track near Elm Grove, when he seized her and threw her down. She screamed and fought, and finally her assailant was frightened away by the approach of men who had heard her cries.

Cut on the Head.

Yesterday Charles Fritz, an East Wheeling man, and a boy named Woodward, a son of William Woodward, of Nineteenth street, got into a quarrel, and the boy struck Fritz over the head with a shovel, cutting a bad gash. Dr. Ballard dressed the wound, and had to put four stitches in it. The police were informed, but when Officer Daum went to arrest young Woodward he was told he had gone to the country.

Charged With Disorder.

John Mulholland was arrested yesterday afternoon by Officer Desmond, charged with disorderly conduct. Several men were repairing a sewer in North Wheeling, when Mulholland came along and began to interfere with the work, and became so annoying that he was arrested. He says one of the workmen struck him on the head with a brick, and he shows a big cut to sustain this claim.

Last of That Prize Fight.

The only cases in the police court yesterday morning were the last three of those engaged in the alleged prize fight in North Wheeling the other night. John Thomas was dismissed, although an officer testified that he got him at the time and he afterward broke away. Theodore Clouse and Louis Frederick were each fined $1 and costs. Frederick claims that the evidence showed he was not there.
